命运与共 大爱情怀

Shared Destiny Boundless Love

Since the outbreak of the COVID-19 epidemic, Chinese armed forces rushed to the frontline without hesitation with all-out efforts to save lives and safeguard people's safety and health. They wrote a moving story against the epidemic with love, sweat and sacrifice. As a reliable force to protect people's lives and safeguard peace, the Chinese military and the Chinese people breathe the same air, share the same fate and are closely connected.

Knowing no borders, viruses are the common enemy of all human beings, to which no country can stay immune. Thus countries should help one another tide over difficulties. The selected art works feature the Chinese soldiers fighting bravely on the frontline, who helped dispel the gloom of the epidemic with warm sunshine, defeat the virus through solidarity and guard global health security.
